IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

New Orleans, for files of papers from that city from Vera Cruz, whence she sailed on the 4th up to the 22d, brought by the steamer Magnolia which arrived here on yesterday. We copy the following from the Commercial Bulletin war-worn hero, who carried the scars of 1812 of the 22d. The news brought by the Tay so gloriously into the unexampled campaign of leaves but little doubt on the minds of the editors of the New Orleans papers as to the ratification of the Treaty.

The English Oourier arrived at Vera Cruz on the morning of the 16th inst., and brought down the intalligence, that the Mexican Congress assembled at Queretaro on the 5th inst., and that they had elected Herrera as President Pena y Pena, however, still holds the office of President ad interim, and will continue to de so until the health of Herrera is sufficiently established, to enable him to preside over their deliberations.

Letters have been received at Vera Cruz from responsible and creditable persons at the seat of Government, which state positively that the treaty will be ratified on the 25th of the present month. We are assured that there can be no doubt of this fact. On the 12th inst. but 15 members were opposed to its ratification .-Those opposers consist of Almonte, with fourteen Pueros who advocate the annexation of Mexico to the United States.

Their hope is that this may be accomplishedin order that both life and property may be ren, "dered more secure.

From Mexico, we learn verbally, that Lieut. Hare, of the Pa. volunteers, has been found guilty.

An insurrection among the Indians, against the whites has lately occurred near Orizaba .-The extent of the damage done we do not know, but understand that they have driven several families from their farms.

From Vera Cruz the news is of but little im portance. The yellow fever is very bad, and many deaths have occurred. When the Tay left, Mr. Beebe, sutler in the army, and former ly of St. Louis, was dying. Capt. Jordan. U

S. Q. M. has been ill, but is now recovering. Gen. Kearney started for the city of Mexico on Saturday evening, the 13th, with an escort. On the day following 1200 troops started after him, their destination is not known positively, but it is said they are intended for the city of Mexico. The object of the Commander-in-Chief in thus increasing our armed force there can only be surmised. The troops now re-

He, however, continues, by saying that it were best that all the past differences be forgotten, and that Congress should at once settle the question in peace. He says that the Americans have learned the Mexican people a grand lesson, which he hopes they will profit by, and also entreats them to forget the past, and to try and place the country in the position she was before the war, so that their children will not have reason to curse their memories. He draws a vivid picture of the state of the country under the war-with commerce stopped, public and private bankruptcy, and all the attendant horrors. He refers to Yucatan, and says that if they were at peace, the assistance which is demanded by their suffering
